

November 30, 2007

Mr. Mark Geller, Director
National Paralegal College
6516 N. 7th Street
Phoenix, AZ 85014

Dear Mark,

This is to confirm the results of the Connecticut Credit Assessment (CCAP) review of National Paralegal College courses which was held at the offices of Charter Oak State College on October 19, 2007. Team members were:

Walter Lippincott, J.D., Associate Professor, Legal Assistant Program, Naugatuck Valley
Community College
Sharlene A. McEvoy, J.D., Ph.D., Professor of Business Law, Fairfield University
Lucy Michaud, J.D., Assistant Professor of Business Administration, and Paralegal Program
Director, Briarwood College.

After reviewing course materials and the online class site, the team awarded 2 semester hours of credit at the basic level for the following courses:

Criminal Law	Contracts
Constitutional Law & Criminal Procedure	Business Law & Bankruptcy
Alternative Dispute Resolution	Wills, Trusts and Estates
Domestic Relations	Patents, Trademarks & Copyrights
Professional Responsibility & Legal Ethics	Real Property
Torts & Personal Injury
Legal Research, Writing & Civil Litigation: 2 semester hours of credit at the basic level as Civil Litigation

I am enclosing a copy of the Staff Report with comments and suggestions from the review team.

Sincerely,

Maryanne LeGrow, Ph.D.
Assessment Coordinator

Enc.